On Monday, Judge Reed handed down a decision in the case of state vs. D. S. Gilmore, adm. of the estate of Timothy Kelley. In the memorandum of decision he says:

The claim for a legacy need not be presented to the executor within the time limited by the court of probate for creditors to present their claims. Neither is the claim for legacy barred by seventeen years' rule of the Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Talbot returned time limited by the court of probate for creditors to present their claims. Statute of limitation.

The demurrers to the second and third defense are therefore sustained. It is alleged in paragraph four of the complaint that "said Timothy Kelley did not pay the legacies in said will" and in the last clause of paragraph eight, that "which legacy (recame on Saturday to visit her son, Walter Farrar, at his home on Otis will" and in the last clause of paragraph eight that "which legacy (referring to the legacy of $100 to the plaintiff) through the neglect of said Timothy Kelley, she has not received."

The non-prement of this legacy is the only breach of the bond relied upon, and under the issues raised under the first defense, I find these allegations unproven and untrue. While I find that no statute of limitations operates to bar the clause for legacy absolutely, and no presumption of its payment arises from mere lapse of time, yet from the long lapse of time, in connection with the other circumstances, as shown by the evidence, I find that the plaintiff has failed to prove the breach of the bond in the particular of the non-payment of this William Vetter, who has been in Bay City, Mich., since October, returned on Saturday to his home on Pros-Elmer Maynard, John Pfeiffer and William Pfeiffer of Groton were guests Thomas Niarchos and Peter Sellas left on Monday for a trip which will include New Haven, Bridgeport, New

New Vaudeville and Motion Pictures.

There is a bill of rare merit with plenty of wild west spirit at the Broad-way theater this week as arranged for the first three days by Manager Hunz-comb. The pictures of Monday were decidedly pleasing and worthy of repetition. The recl showing the logging scenes and the manipulating of rafts in strong currents was one of the best seen in a long time.

Art Gisher, as the cowboy mimic and comedian, is a clever entertainer, both in song and imitations. His work pleased immensely, while the Towels, in their song and dance number, got a good hand for their efforts.

Kurnel, the educated bulldog, excited the admiration of the audience for his intelligence, and the introduct on of a film to carry out the story of the playlet. A True Friend, makes an interesting number. The dog, as the assistant of Robertus & Co., is a winner.

CURES ECZEMA QUICKLY

ew Discovery Has Revolutionized the Treatment of Skin Diseases.

Nothing in the history of medicines has ever approached the success of the marvelous skin remedy known as poslam, which, it is safe to say has cured more cases of eczems and skin diseases than any remedy ever offered for these ills.

The success of poslam is not at all surprising when it is considered that even a very small quantity applied to the skin stops itching immediately and cures chronic cases in two weeks. The very worst cases of oczema, as well as acne, herpes, tetter, piles, sair rheum, rash, crusted humors, scaly scalp and every form of lich, yield to it readily. Blemishes such as pimples, red noses, muddy and inflamed skin disappear almost immediately when poslam is applied, the complexion being cleared over night.

Every druggist keeps both the 50-cent size (for minor troubles) and the $2 jar, and either of these may be obtained at Lee & Osgood's and Smith's drug store in Norwich, Larue's in Putnam, Woodward's in Danielson and Chesebro's in Willimantic, as well as other reliable drug stores.

But no one is even asked to purchase poslam without first obtaining
